

Irrigation webinar series

Webinar 6: ACCC inquiry into water markets – a Victorian irrigation perspective

This webinar will discuss key findings of the recent Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) inquiry into Murray-Darling Basin water markets, with an emphasis on the implications of the findings for Victorian irrigators. A Victorian perspective on the inquiry will be provided by Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning (DELWP).

TOPICS

- Key findings in the ACCC inquiry into water markets
- Improvements identified for the operation, transparency, regulation, and efficiency of the water markets
- Victoria's perspective on the ACCC inquiry.

Expert Speakers

Mick Keogh, ACCC Deputy Chair and MDB Chair of the water markets inquiry. Mick also has the responsibility of agriculture and small business, within the ACCC.

Alieta Donald, DELWP Director of Water Resource Reform and Insights. This role includes oversight and reform of Victoria's water markets.

WHEN

Friday, 28 May from 1 - 2 pm.

HOW TO REGISTER

To register in advance for this webinar, go to <https://bit.ly/AgVicWMW6>. After registering, you will receive an email containing information about joining the webinar, including a passcode.

For information about the webinar series call Rob O'Connor on 0408 515 652, or for technical issues call John Paulet on 0429 158 500.

MORE IRRIGATION WEBINARS TO COME

Themes to be covered in this monthly irrigation webinar series include water trade, water policy and irrigation technology.

SUPPORT

This webinar is brought to you by the Sustainable Irrigation Program, a partnership between Agriculture Victoria, Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning (DELWP), catchment management authorities, and rural water corporations.